

The Little Red Riding Hood

Little Red Riding Hood lives in the forest with her mother.

One day Little Red Riding Hood visits her grandmother.

She has a nice cake in her basket.

On the way Little Red Riding Hood meets a wolf.

« Hello !, says the wolf. Who are you ?

-Hello, I'm the Little Red Riding Hood, says the LRRH.

-Nice to meet you, says the wolf. (big voice with a mmmm !)

-Nice to meet you too, says the LRRH. (small voice a bit frightened).

-Where are you going ?, says the wolf.

-I'm going to see my grandmother. She lives in a house behind the forest. »

The wolf runs to the house and eats the grandmother.

He goes in her bed.

Then comes the LRRH. She looks at the wolf :

« Granny, you have big eyes !

-All the better to see with ! , says the wolf

-Granny, you have big ears !

-All the better to hear you with !

-Granny, you have a big nose !

-All the better to smell you with !

-Granny, you have big teeth !

-All the better to eat you with ! », shouts the wolf.

A woodcutter in the forest hears a loud scream and runs to the house.

The woodcutter hits the wolf on the head.

The wolf opens his mouth and Granny jumps out.

The wolf runs away for ever.
